

Excerpts from Sponsorship Questionnaire

Why does your organization sponsor Rebuilding Together?

Sponsors are involved for a variety of reasons. As a company, we believe it is important to be a 'good corporate citizen' and one of the ways we do this is becoming involved in our community in efforts such as Rebuilding Together. In addition, our involvement allows us to create a positive culture of teamwork as well as good citizenship within our company. This is a very direct way to make a difference.

What is unique or special about Rebuilding Together?

Rebuilding Together allows us to make a dramatic difference in the quality of an individual's or a family's life by making repairs and improvements to their homes that may have gone undone due to economic considerations. The fact that the day is planned so well and things run smoothly makes it a pleasure to volunteer. When a family has been without doors which close & lock, a working bathroom, or lights which may or may not work, having them restored proves the old adage, "it's the little things which mean a lot". It is also a delicious experience to eat food prepared by a family to be shared with all the volunteers.

What keeps you coming back?

The knowledge that I've made a positive difference in someone's life.

How do you feel about your contribution as it relates to the ongoing family life of homeowners?

I feel that returning basic functionality to someone's home allows them to feel more positive about their lifestyle, but it may even be the impetus for dramatic improvement because of their ability to allocate limited resources to other more pressing needs instead of making patchwork repairs on their home.

Sponsor Quote: "Rebuilding Together epitomizes the true spirit of giving."
